

BOLUWATIFE MARY BADMUS

Email: badmusmary18@gmail.com Phone: +234(0)7057838710 📍 Lagos, Nigeria.

Professional Summary

A dedicated and passionate healthcare professional with a strong foundation in health systems, community outreach, and data analytics. Experienced in both fieldwork and academic roles, with a recent transition into data analysis. Adept at translating public health data into actionable insights to improve healthcare delivery and outcomes.

Education

Kwara State University, Malete, Kwara State, Nigeria.

- Bachelor of Science in Public Health Science – Second Class Honours (Upper Division)
- August 2019 – October 2022

Certification

- Appclick ICT Academy – 2025
- Deloitte Data Analytics Certification – 2025

Certified in the data analytics methodologies, statistical analysis, and visualization tools (Excel, SQL, Python, Power BI, Tableau)

Work history

Freelance Data Analyst

April 2025 – Present

- Collected and cleaned Public Health datasets from WHO and Kaggle.
- Built dashboards in Power BI to visualize malaria trends in West Africa
- Created predictive models to estimate maternal mortality.
- Documented findings and delivered insights to a hypothetical health NGO for decision-making.

Data Analyst Intern (virtual internship)

Forage Platform – Completed Deloitte Data Analytics Training.

- Conducted Data Quality Assessment and built dashboards with business recommendations.

Primary Health Care Center, Agbowo Apata, Ibadan Nigeria.

National Youth Service (NYSC)/Healthcare Assistant

October 2023 – July 2024

- Provided patients with information on health maintenance, nutrition, and disease prevention.
- Assisted in delivering health promotion programs and educational workshops.
- Ensured proper documentation and charting of patient care activities.
- Scheduled patient appointments and managed patient records.
- Assisted with the preparation of examination rooms and ensured they are clean and well-stocked.
- Handled patient admissions and discharges.

Slum and Rural Health Initiatives, Ibadan, Nigeria.

Volunteer

April 2023 – July 2023

- Educated communities on hygiene, nutrition, disease prevention, and healthy lifestyle practices.
- Assisted in organizing and promoting health campaigns on issues like vaccination drives, sanitation, and maternal health.
- Worked with local leaders to understand community needs and collaborate on health initiatives.
- Helped with paperwork, record-keeping, and other administrative duties necessary for the smooth operation of health programs.
- Participated in fundraising activities to support health initiatives and procure necessary medical supplies and equipment.
- Collected data on health conditions, program effectiveness, and community needs.

The organization was effective in bridging gaps in healthcare access and ensuring that underserved communities receive the necessary care and education to improve their health outcomes of which I was fully involved.

Primary Health Care Center, Ojo, Lagos, Nigeria.

Industrial Trainee

October 2020 – April 2021

- Helped nurses and doctors with basic patient care tasks (e.g., taking vitals like temperature, blood pressure, etc.)
- Supported Health education sessions (e.g., on hygiene, family planning, nutrition).
- Participated in community outreach programs and immunization campaigns.
- Assisted in dispensing medications under supervision.
- Scheduled appointments and answered patient inquiries

Core Competencies

- Profound research prowess
- Microsoft office and Excel Suite
- Leadership and teamwork
- Analytical and problem-solving skills
- Negotiation skills
- Networking skills.

References available upon request